identifying its nature and scope would be beneficial for all countries. We expect that the Commission will set out the generic rules of "ius cogens" based on negotiation of investment treaties and regional economic partnership agreements as well as judicial proceedings before the WTO and other inappropriate to include its language in the preambular paragraph which