Egypt sets the basis points and the straight baselines for Egyptian coastlines, including the Red Sea coast, which extend southward to 36° 52' 54" east and 22° 00' 00" north. That Decree was disseminated in the Al-Ahram, 16 of December 1990.

4. The Arab Republic of Egypt considers the claims of the Sudan to be completely unfounded and inconsistent with the legal situation arising from the 1899 Agreement and the permanent nature of the international borders established thereby. The reference in the declaration issued on 3 March 2017 by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Sudan to the "Egyptian military occupation" of the Hala'ib and Shalatin region is incorrect and unacceptable.
5. The Arab Republic of Egypt declares its rejection and non-recognition of any action whatsoever that the Sudan has taken or might take in the future, as well as any international agreement with any other party that the Sudan has concluded or might conclude in the future, that would prejudice the sovereignty of Egypt over its land or maritime territory north of the 22nd parallel north.

Issued in Cairo on 4 May 2017

Declaración del Ministerio de Asuntos Exteriores de Egipto, 6 de mayo de 2017⁴

In the name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate

With reference to the declaration that was made by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Arab Republic of Egypt in Cairo on 4 May 2017 and published on the website of United Nations Division for Ocean Affairs and the Law of the Sea, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Sudan wishes to stress the following points:

1. The present geographical and political boundaries, including the Hala'ib triangle, which is located to the north of latitude 22°N, are the borders inherited by the Sudan upon its independence on 1 January 1956, according to documents and maps issued at the time, most importantly those deposited with the United Nations before and at the time of independence.
2. In accordance with the rn A24.4(n)17.8(t)-30c0 10.69nd (c)-21Sgb Repi(, a2 -13er)7.2(e t)-21.9(1.132 TDc(n)3-5.)-6.7(s)-

In particular, the Government of the Republic of the Sudan demands that the Egyptian occupation authorities comply with the Geneva Conventions of 1949 and all of the rules of international humanitarian law. Egypt must refrain from changing the demographics of the land or its inhabitants, harming the Sudanese citizens living under occupation in the Hala'ib triangle or their property, and denying their fundamental rights, including the right to life, freedom of expression and freedom from torture, arbitrary detention and enforced disappearance.

The Republic of Sudan rejects the allegations contained in the declaration made by the Arab Republic of Egypt on 4 May 2017. It calls upon the Government of the Arab Republic of Egypt to promptly resort to arbitration and resolve the crisis peacefully in accordance with the principles of international law and the Charter of the United Nations.

This declaration was made by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of the Sudan on 6 July 2017.
