

“Connections,”

at the individual level, victims have had to find creative ways to stay connected while being isolated from each other, from their community connects with victims by standing in solidarity, honouring those who have lost their lives, and paying tribute to those who continue to live with the consequences of terrorism.

online high-level event: ‘Surviving Terrorism: The Power of Connections’, will be held with the participation of the United Nations Secretary-General Mr. António Guterres, the Under-Secretary-General of UNOCT, the co-chairs of the Group of “Surviving Terrorism: The Power of Connections” produced by the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre (UNCT) will be launched, featuring testimonies of victims and survivors of terrorism from across the world and ending with a

This will be followed by an interactive discussion with victims, connections, how the pandemic has impacted the ability of victims to connect, and ways to strengthen the international community’s

This virtual event is organised by the United Nations Office of Counter-Terrorism/the United Nations Counter-Terrorism Centre, in collaboration with the Group of Friends of Victims of Terrorism.

s of Te

THE POWER OF C

HIGH-LEVEL SEGMENT

Secretary-General, United Nations

Under-Secretary-General, UN Office of Counter-Terrorism

Ambassador and Permanent Representative of Spain to the UN and

Victim of terrorism, Kenya

Victim of terrorism, Norway

LAUNCH OF THE FILM

MUSIC INTERLUDE

INTERACTIVE DISCUSSION

Victim of terrorism, Iraq

Victim of terrorism, United Kingdom