THIRD INTERNATIONAL DECADE FOR THE ERADICATION OF COLONIALISM

Caribbean regional seminar on the implementation of the Third International would not legitimize, from the outset, its illegal occupation of Western Sahara.

Since 2007, the Security Council has repeatedly called upon the two parties to the preconditions in good faith with a view to achieving a just, lasting and mutually acceptable political solution that would provide for the self-determination of the people the natural resources of Western Sahara including fisheries, phosphates and other sovereignty of the Sahrawi people over their natural resources. Morocco still maintains its whereby the Sahrawi people could exercise their inalienable right to self-determination and independence in a free, fair, democratic and internationally supervised referendum.

After all, enabling the people of a Non-Self-Governing Territory to decide their destiny freely and democratically will definitely be a fitting and great achievement to mark the Third International Decade for the Eradication of Colonialism and the United Nations 70th anniversary.
