Mr Chairman,

Last year I raised a number of concerns about the accuracy of the Gibraltar working paper and the conclusions reached after the seminar.

I am grateful to the Secretariat for correcting those inaccuracies this year.

73 (b), Mr Chairman requires UK to develop our self-government and to take due account of our political aspirations as a People.

Spain, in breach of its obligation as a member of the UN, opposes the development of our self-government and tells you we are not a People, but an artificial population. The population of Gibraltar is 33,140 made of

If you continue to use Spain's terminology, describing us as the territory's population and not it's People, then, I submit you are in breach of the text of the Charter, the highest International Law.

In the first and second decades the seminar conclusions included the statement that the process of decolonisation would be incomplete, until all decolonisation issues were resolved in a satisfactory manner

Last year I complained about the reference to an agreement to hold 4 sided talks to replace the tripartite forum, and asked you to correct this, because it was not true.
