

UNITED NATIONS SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON DECOLONISATION

PACIFIC REGIONAL SEMINAR OF

Managua, Nicaragua

Thank you!

My presentation will primarily focus on the role of the Melanesian Spearhead Group (MSG) as a Pacific regional political organization addressing the issue of decolonization in the remaining Non Self Governing Territories (NSGTs) in the Pacific. The paper will make specific reference to the MSG historical

- The very raison d'être of the Melanesian Spearhead Group

Many a times we remind ourselves in the MSC and others of the reasons

Territory of New Caledonia grew louder and was strongly echoed in the Pacific the continued support for MSG Development Mission of the United Nations has greatly helped the FLNKS advance its cause at the regional and international level.

Needless to remind ourselves that the MSG was initially established to our own future that we aspire to achieve peace, security and enduring prosperity.

- The MSG and the decolonisation process in New Caledonia

In highlighting the status of the FLNKS as a non-sovereign state member of the MSG, the MSG Eminent Persons Group Report considered the FLNKS as “essentially a government-in-waiting should the Nouméa Accord processes result
