

Madam President,

Ladies and Gentleman,

Sahara region fully enjoy our civil, political, economic, social and cultural rights and our Hassani culture, that are an integral part of Morocco's identity.

The population of the Sahara region thus actively participates in the implementation of policies dealing with the management and development of the region's resources, through its democratically elected representatives.

Similarly, economic operators in the Sahara region are actively involved in the development