

Questions for the panellists

I would like to take up to what H.E. Mr. David Donoghue mentioned on the role of Civil society which is challenging the views. Taking that as an entry point and working towards an analysis and understanding better the root causes of forced for policy coherence. In our analysis on root causes we need to look at recommendations of civil societies engaging with other UN agencies and working in the areas of development. An example is the civil society working on the current framework of extraordinary privileges and impunity enjoyed by transn
