

Statement on behalf of the European Union

By

Eglantine Cujo

Legal Adviser

Delegation of the European Union to the United Nations

at the General Assembly Sixth Committee

7. The European Union is also pleased to see that in his third report of the Special Rapporteur has begun his initial analysis of the relationship of provisional application to other