Chairperson,

My delegation has the honor once again to deliver this statement on behalf of the African Group. The African Group associates itself with the Statement delivered by the designated representative of the Islamic Republic of Mauritania on 15 July 1991.

Group is in favour of maintaining SEA as an annual item on the agenda of the General

The African Group has adopted a 'no compromise' approach when it comes to criminal accountability and is resolved never to condone any attempts to downplay further welcome the technical assistance offered by the UN to Member States requesting support in developing their domestic criminal law to combat and deter such serious, degrading and demeaning offences.

The expertise that the UN offers goes a long way to developing and strengthening national capacities to investigate and prosecute serious crimes, especially in the context of mutual legal assistance and extradition. In the same vein, the Group continues to encourage States to cooperate with each other in criminal investigations and/or extradition proceedings where crimes of a serious nature are committed by UN officials and experts on mission.

In conclusion, Chairperson, the African Group welcomes the opportunity this dialogue
