Statement on behalf of Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden

	Madam Chair,
-	I have the honor to speak on behalf of Finland, Norway, Iceland, Sweden - and
ī. /
—
	According to the report of the Secretary-General (E/2019/68) "Special edition: progress towards the Sustainable Development Goals" from 8 May 2019 billions of people still lack access to safe water.
	Approximately one third of all countries have medium or high levels of water
•
_ '

_ اللا

,...;

	Madam Chair,
	Having followed the matter for nearly a decade, we notice that a number of states have developed bilateral and regional agreements and arrangements on to plante savifora. On a manualaria tha Cuarani A quifor A creament bature
- 7
	Amounting Description of Lineary
	Argentina, Brazil, Paraguay and Uruguay.
	Argentina, Brazil, Paraguay and Uruguay. This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
-	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
-	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit
	This development is positive, and we would like to use this opportunity to recognize States that have made such agreements and arrangements to the benefit