

- Check against duplication of the pri

October 2021

Germany has found universal jurisdiction to be an effective and proportionate tool to pursue accountability for the worst international crimes. While we would prefer to have the most serious crimes under international law tried by international tribunals, in particular the International Criminal Court if the applicable complementarity criteria are met, we do our part in working towards accountability for these crimes. Currently, cases regarding torture in Syrian prisons by the Syrian

OE P]u • Á o o • OE]u • Ç u u OE • }( [ • Z OE • Ç ' P v 0 •5€

