

Statement by H.E. Mr. Jongin BAE (Deputy Permanent Representative)
The Sixth Committee of the 7th UNGA
Permanent Mission of the Republic of Korea to the United Nations
United Nations Programme of Assistance in the Teaching, Study, Dissemination and Wider Appreciation of International Law (Agenda: 76)

20 October 2022

Thank you, Mr./Madam Chair.

My delegation appreciates the Secretary-General's Report (A/77/515) and Programmes of Assistance in promoting a better knowledge of international law for over beneficiaries. For instance, we can make many of those Programmes, including the audio-video lectures, more widely known and available to our universities and academia, or make more use of them in training civil servants and diplomats.

Our domestic experience tells us that public international law requires nurturing by the Gov lectures and trainings at the "Seoul Academy of International Law" and "Yeosu Academy of the Law of the Sea" this year.

Mr./Madam Chair,

Let me make a few comments on the Programme of Assistance.

First, my delegation commends the Office of Legal Affairs' efforts to continue implementing the UN Regional Courses in International Law — a remote self-paced learning curriculum as an interim means of capacity-building during the exceptional circumstances resulting from COVID-19 where in-person training could not be held.

We would like to underline the importance of in-

Thank you, Mr./Madam Chair.