

Background Note on the Snapshot of ODA disbursements related to Peacebuilding

1. The data on Official Development Assistance (ODA) is publicly available information, collected on an annual basis by the OECD as reported through their Creditor Reporting System. The present snapshot is an extract of the OECD database and visualizes data on donors, recipients and countries.
2. The Snapshot is dynamic and selecting sectors will highlight the donors for that sector and vice versa.
3. More detailed information on specific projects is available on <https://stats.oecd.org/> Development Flows based on individual projects Creditor Reporting System Select sector and/or donor and the flow type (gross disbursements) click the dollar amount for desired year to show list of projects.

About the data

4. The information represents gross disbursements of ODA and reflects actual spending rather than commitments to spend money; while excluding debt repayments as reported to the OECD. They are expressed in millions of constant US$ of 2017, which exclude inflation and exchange rate movements.
5. Although the information may not capture all development flows

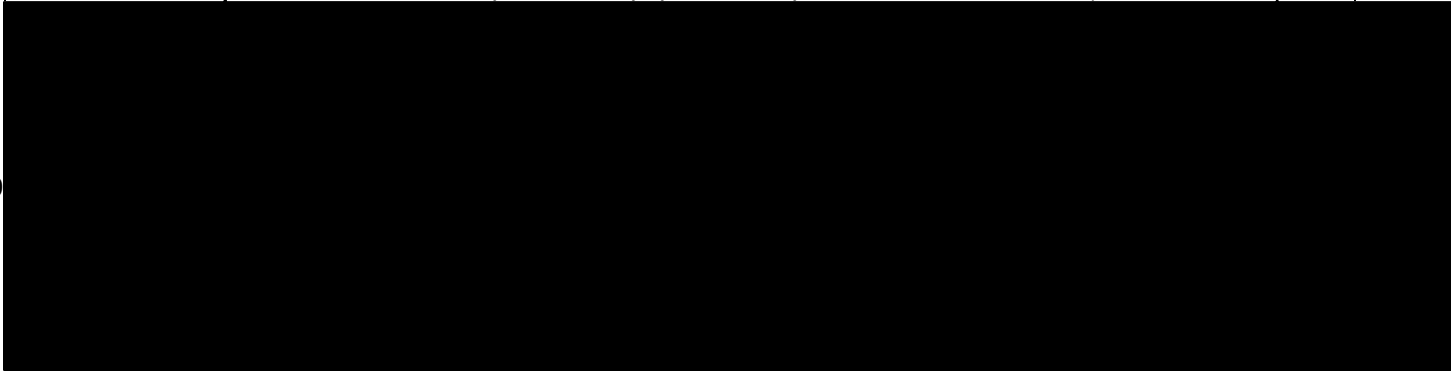

Annex I Peacebuilding-Related OECD-DAC Purpose Codes

15153

Media and free flow of information

Activities that support free and uncensored flow of information on public issues; activities that include editorial and technical skills and the integrity of the print and broadcast media, e.g. training of journalists (see codes 22012040 for provision of equipment and capital assistance to media.)

15160

15210	Security system management and reform	Technical cooperation provided to parliament, government ministries, law enforcement agencies and judiciary to assist review and reform of the security system to improve democratic governance; technical cooperation provided to government to improve civilian oversight and democratic control of budget management, accountability and auditing of security expenditure, including military budgets, as expenditure management programme; assistance to civil society to enhance its competence and scrutinise the security system so that it is managed in accordance with democratic norms and accountability, transparency and good governance. [Other than in the context of an international operation (15230)].
15220	Civilian peace building, conflict prevention and resolution	Support for civilian activities related to peace building, conflict prevention and resolution, including building, monitoring, dialogue and information exchange. Bilateral participation in international civilian peace missions such as those conducted by the UN Department of Political Affairs (UNDPA) or the EU (European Security and Defence Policy), and contributions to civilian peace funds or commissions (Peacebuilding Commission, Peacebuilding thematic window of the MDG achievement fund etc.). These contributions can take the form of financing or provision of equipment or civilian or military personnel training civilians). (Use code 15230 for bilateral participation in international peacekeeping operations). Bilateral participation in peacekeeping operations mandated or authorised by the United Nations Security Council resolutions, and conducted by international organisations, e.g. UN, NATO, the European Union (Security and Defence Policy related operations), or regional groupings of developing countries. Contributions to the UN Department for Peacekeeping Operations (UNDPKO) excluded from bilateral

15230 Participation in international peacekeeping operations