

)ahla Valji, Senior Gender Adviser, Executive Office of the Secretary-General

Ahla Valji is the Senior Gender Adviser in the Executive Office of the Secretary-General (EOG) where she heads the Secretariat for the "50:50" Spotlight Initiative to Eliminate Violence against Women and Girls and supports the implementation of the Secretary-General's Gender Parity Strategy among other efforts. She joined the with Iqbal Muhammad, and won the Best Reporting Award in 2012. Her documentary film /Shack Home has won the Best Short Documentary Award and Best Cultural Documentary Award for the 2010 Hollywood International Independent Documentary Film Festival and the 2010 New York Emmy Awards Documentary Filmmaking Awards.

Martha Chen, Lecturer in Public Policy at the Harvard Kennedy School and Co-founder, Emeritus International Coordinator and Senior Advisor of the global network Women in Informal Employment Globalizing and Organizing Martha Chen is a Lecturer in Public Policy at the Harvard Kennedy School and Co-founder, Emeritus International Coordinator and Senior Advisor of the global network Women in Informal Employment Globalizing and Organizing. An experienced development practitioner and scholar her areas of specialization are employment gender and poverty with a focus on the working poor in the informal economy. Before joining Harvard in 2004 she had two decades of resident work experience in Bangladesh and in India. Dr. Chen co-founded and for twenty years led the WIGOS network which is well known worldwide for its work to improve the status of the working poor in the informal economy through stronger organizations improved statistics and research and a more favorable policy environment. Dr. Chen received a Ph.D. in South Asia Regional Studies from the University of Pennsylvania. She was awarded a high civilian award the Padma Shri by the Government of India in April 2008 and a Friends of Bangladesh Liberation War award by the Government of Bangladesh in December 2012.

Gayatri Ghosh, Professor of Economics at the Centre for Economic Studies and Planning, School of Social Sciences, Jawaharlal Nehru University, and member of the High Level Advisory Board on Economic and Social Affairs

Gayatri Ghosh is Professor of Economics at the Centre for Economic Studies and Planning School of Social Sciences Jawaharlal Nehru University New Delhi. She was educated at Delhi University Jawaharlal Nehru University and the University of Cambridge. She has published over 200 research papers in the field of development economics and labor economics. Her research interests include the role of the state in economic development, the impact of globalization on the Indian economy, and the role of women in the Indian economy. She has also worked on the issue of labor rights and the role of trade unions in the Indian economy. She has been a member of the High Level Advisory Board on Economic and Social Affairs since 2008.

methodologies and data collection within the statistical household surveys. In Moldova she led the work on the SDC nationalization and currently on behalf of the National Bureau of Statistics is the national focal point for the SDC data production.

Closing remarks

Jeffrey D. Sachs, Director of the Center for Sustainable Development at Columbia University, member of the High Level Advisory Board on Economic and Social Affairs, and SDG Advocate

Jeffrey D. Sachs is a University Professor and Director of the Center for Sustainable Development at Columbia University where he directed the Earth Institute from 2002 until 2013. He is also President of the UN Sustainable Development Solutions Network and a commissioner of the UN Broadband Commission for Development. He has been advisor to three United Nations Secretaries General and currently serves as an SDC Advocate under Secretary General António Guterres. He spent over twenty years as a professor at Harvard University where he received his B.S., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees. He has authored numerous bestseller books. His most recent book is The Age of Globalization: Geography, Technology, and Institutions (2019). Sachs was twice named as one of Time magazine's 100