

Summit of the Future Act on Days

20-

Overview of events

What is the Summit of the Future Act on Days (20-21 September)?

The Summit of the Future Act on Days will bring together representatives from Member States, civil society, private sector, academia, local and regional authorities, creative communities, youth, and many more. Everyone will be present, included and engaged during the Act on Days. These stakeholders have all played a key role in shaping the Pact for the Future and will be critical to its implementation. Their participation, contributions and catalytic mobilization will be essential to the success of the Summit of the Future and its follow-up.

What is the programme for the Summit of the Future Act on Days?

The programme is available on the website and is regularly updated: Act on Days - SOF | United Nations.

Attendance and participation

Who can participate in the Summit of the Future Act on Days?

The Summit of the Future Act on Days will be open to all interested stakeholders and representatives of organizations whose work has been relevant in shaping and/or to the implementation of the Pact for the Future.

To attend in person, participants must have either a valid UN grounds pass or a Special Events Ticket issued by the United Nations to enter the United Nations Headquarters during the Summit of the Future Act on Days. Please remember registration closes on September 6, 2024. For more information on how to register, please visit the Summit of the Future Act on Days website.

Do I have to pay to attend the Summit of the Future Act on Days?

The United Nations does not charge fees for participation in Conferences and events. If you are aware of possible scams, please email sot.act.ondays@un.org.

Are funds available for stakeholders to participate at the Summit of the Future Act on Days and the Summit of the Future?

Registered stakeholders are responsible for their own travel and accommodation costs.

How many individuals per organization can attend?

Each organization will be allowed to be represented by a maximum of 10 individuals.

Side events

Will there be side events during the Summit of the Future Act on Days?

In parallel to the main programme, a limited number of high-level side events, organized by UN Member States, UN entities, relevant International Organizations and stakeholder networks working in partnership and identified through an open call.

How can I attend a side event during the Summit of the Future Act on Days?

Participants of the Summit of the Future Act on Days will be able to attend side events held during the Summit of the Future Act on Days. There will be no separate registration process set up for side events.

Who can organize a side event during the Summit of the Future Act on Days?

The period for proposals inside the UN Headquarters to

Secretariat will assign a meeting room and a timeslot for each approved side event. The Summit of the Future Act on Days Secretariat is not responsible for selecting and inviting speakers and participants, time management of the events, the costs of the events, promoting the events, and preparing final summaries.

As organizer of a side event during the Summit of the Future Act on Days, what are my responsibilities?

The side-event co-organizers' responsibilities include – but are not limited to – the invitation and travel arrangements for speakers including visa and security clearance, as needed; the over

A the ov