

The Security Council has continued to develop its approach to assisting States in their PRR efforts.

In this context, there are two resolutions that serve as core references for CTED's PRR engagement.

First, Council resolution 2349 (2017), which specifically focuses on the broader context of the Lake Chad Basin.

Second, Council resolution 2396 (2017), which

As required by Council resolution 2396 (2017), particular attention must be paid to gender aspects.

Gender analysis should not be limited to understanding an individual's relationship with Boko Haram or experience of trauma and conflict.

It should also address how gender stereotypes
