

- d. Urge Member States to use the applicable international instruments to which they are parties as a basis for mutual legal assistance and consider using the international instruments as a basis for extradition in terrorism cases.
- e. Encourage Member States to enact and, where appropriate, review and update extradition and mutual legal assistance laws consistent with their international obligations, including their human rights obligations.
- f. Recommend to Member States that they expedite, simplify and give priority to extradition and mutual legal assistance requests in terrorism-related cases and implement international and regional best practices in the field of extradition and mutual legal assistance, with due respect for human rights, fundamental freedoms and international refugee law.

In the field of extradition:

- g. Remind Member States of their obligations to ensure that any person who participates in the financing, planning, preparation or perpetration of terrorist acts or in supporting terrorist acts is brought to justice.
- h. Remind Member States of their obligation to deny safe haven to those who finance, plan, support or commit terrorist acts, or provide safe havens.
- i. Remind Member States of their obligation to extradite or prosecute under applicable international counter-terrorism instruments to which they are parties, and of their obligation to ensure in conformity with international law that claims of political motivation are not recognized as grounds for refusing requests for the extradition of alleged terrorists.
- j. Remind Member States of their obligation to ensure, in conformity with international law, that refugee status is not abused by the perpetrators, organizers or facilitators of terrorist acts.
